The only newsroom resource tool designed specifically for news media

At NewsBank, we understand the unique, deadline-driven needs of print and broadcast newsrooms. That's why America's News & World News – Newsroom Edition provides exclusive content, intuitive workflow tools and other useful features that can improve efficiency and lower your publication's operating costs. Including full text newspapers, broadcast video in native format, statistics, periodicals, trade journals, obituaries, transcripts, staff blogs and more, this comprehensive collection offers your staff unlimited access to the largest and fastest-growing news database in the world. With Newsroom Edition, tight newsroom budgets don't have to mean compromising the integrity and excellence of your reporting.

Unparalleled coverage

With more than 40 years experience and thousands of print and broadcasting partners at every level, NewsBank is uniquely qualified to bring authoritative, wide-ranging coverage to newsrooms large and small. Newsroom Edition features current information and deep archives from a wealth of sources around the world, giving researchers the opportunity to zero in on local sources, compare perspectives and track down hard-to-find facts. What's more, NewsBank's map-based interface and enhanced search tools make it easy to pinpoint pertinent information and navigate quickly through tens of millions of current and archived articles from more than 12,000 sources—all without any special training.

Additional resources

In addition to news articles, video clips, broadcast transcripts, newswires, periodicals, staff blogs and more, NewsBank also offers newsrooms the following:

- Web-only published articles
- More than 90% of all obituaries and death notices published in the U.S., keyword searchable by the name of the deceased
- Aggregated statistical data from 1982 to the present
- Full-page searchable historical newspapers 1690-1970's and other primary documents spanning more than three centuries

Practical features

Designed specifically for use in newsrooms, Newsroom Edition offers many useful features, including email alerts, instant email distribution lists, saved searches, personal folders and links to collections of related articles. With all of this and more, Newsroom Edition is the ultimate newsroom collection. Put it on the desk of every journalist and editor on your staff for instant competitive advantage.
